Featuring SMME Entrepreneurs Enrolled in Angels Programmes

Zeerust Solar Agri4Change

BUSINESS: Mompoti Projects - Farmer
ADDRESS: Zeerust, North West Province
PROGRAMME: Agri4Change

Onkarabile started farming five years ago with livestock, but has since moved into crop farming and beekeeping. "I started developing honey products as a 'side hustle - a way to earn extra income.'" She recently took a bold step and approached Pick'nPay with samples of her honey, who liked what they tasted and placed an order for 48 Jars, so began her journey as a local honey supplier.

Mompoti Projects next goal is to be able to package and market my own Honey and Ginger Health Drink made from all natural ingredients. It is great as we all know that honey and ginger helps with flu. Other honey products still needing to be developed further are lip balm, bees wax and propolis.

Matla A Bokone Enterprise4Change

BUSINESS: Mr Meaty - Butchery
ADDRESS: Kimberley, Northern Cape
PROGRAMME: Enterprise4Change

"The program has ignited my passion of being a successful entrepreneur. It has also given me more self-confidence. Thank you for the opportunity, I can see the growth in my business as I am now thinking more strategically and taking bold steps to ensure the business remains sustainable."

Mr Meaty cannot operate during loadshedding. His current business goal is to combat loadshedding downtime by getting quotes for a generator VS an inverter in order to keep the bandsaws and fridges running and ensure the business will be able to provide a more reliable service, and stop losing income.

Noblesfontein Wind Farm Mentoring

BUSINESS: Gordons Manufacturing Maintenance
ADDRESS: Victoria West, Northern Cape
PROGRAMME: Enterprise4Change

Gordon worked as a school dropout in Cape town in the steel industry, doing welding work for 20 years plus gaining practical experience in construction.

"I opened my business in Victoria West 2019 and I am still growing daily. The program has taught me a lot about managing a business and how to keep on growing. I hope to become the most successful contractor and dominate lots of areas."

Gordon recently secured two new roofing repair jobs due to winter storm wind damaging some old buildings and he is now planning to employ three more temporary workers.
